FROM PEGGY TO POLLY.

Dearest Polly: News? Loads of it! First of all is that engagement I told you some time ago was rumored. It's a plain fact now, that Rosy is engaged to "Kelley" Henshaw, which fact has been announced in due form and everyone is deeply pleased. Rosy Herbert is one of the prettiest and best loved girls in Honolulu. She has been in Boston for several months and has now returned. She was to have stayed until January, but simply got too homesick for words, packed her grip and took the train which took her to San Francisco in time to catch the Matsonia. Mr. Henshaw is an engaging young business man and athlete who came to Honolulu three years ago with the Stanford nine and played in a series of games. He liked Honolulu and the climate and returned almost immediately. There is not a better liked man in Honolulu than the gentle one with the Irish name.

Speaking of being homesick: While in Boston Rosy Herbert saw a good bit of Laura Low, Eloise Wichman, and the two Carter girls, Bud and Phoebe, and says that there is not one of them who wouldn't pack her grip and take a boat for home at the very drop of the hat. Laura, who was enchanted with the East, especially with the attractions which New York had to offer, declares that you can put all their allurements on the scale with Honolulu and they don't nearly balance. "Honolulu simply takes the cake," she tells her friends.

Monday brings the Chicago baseball team into Honolulu again, though only for a day. Dinners and dances have been planned for the strangers and it is expected that altogether there will be rather a gay time.

"Tall men, short men, fat and very small men."

Lend their hearts to fairest maidens in every part.

Fairest maidens cast the eye—af. Then they leave without a sight.

Fairest maidens cast the eye On newer victims for their sport."

There was "nobody home" on Thursday afternoon. All society was out, in plainer and more ladylike tongue. Half of said society were at the elaborate tea at which Rosy Herbert entertained for Mrs. Grover Patton at the Country Club. This was a "telephone tea," which lent an air of informality always so delightful. Of course it was a particularly joyous occasion, as the pretty hostess' engagement was announced on Wednesday. The other half of society spent the hours from 4 to 6 o'clock in the beautiful blue and gold music room in the Watiki home of Mrs. James B. Castle listening to Fritz Scavennius, the Danish pianist, play on a wonderfully well-toned instrument. Thursday has been marked as a very lovely day.

It is with regret that her friends hear the popular Elneta Williams leaving shortly for Hawaii. Miss Williams is one of the best known girls in the "not outs." She attended Punahou Academy where she found favor among her schoolmates. Aside from being possessed of a promising soprano voice, the Honolulu girl is accomplished in other lines. She excels in aquatic sports and is considered an expert motorist.

The idea that Betty Case is going to absent herself from Honolulu for at least four months is received with no little regret by her host of friends, for not only is she popular in the younger set, but in every set in Honolulu. Maj. and Mrs. D. D. Case with Miss Case have planned a journey through the Philippines to the extent of about four months.

There is another engagement rumored, Polly, well—a little more than rumored. A very prominent bachelor in Honolulu is engaged to a pretty society girl on the coast. A deep, dark secret, but he told the Best Friend, and the Best Friend told his best girl and the best girl told me. (I'm her best girl friend.) So, you see, it's not such a secret, though a formal announcement has not yet been made.

And Christmas is only a few days off so I'll leave you, my dear, and go buy you a gift. A pretty nifty one, as you'd say. PEGGY.

Schofield Notes

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence)

SCHOFIELD BARRACKS, Dec. 18. On Christmas eve the chaplains at Schofield are planning to have Christmas trees for the little folks of the garrison, and Chaplain Oscar J. W. Scott of the 25th Infantry intends to have presents for every man, woman and child in the regiment. There will be three immense trees put up in the 25th Infantry amusement hall, and the celebration will be held at 7:30 o'clock Christmas eve. Last year the presents for the soldiers were put up in large boxes, one box for each company. The companies were lined up in turn and drew their presents from the boxes, every man taking a package. There was a great deal of amusement when the men opened the packages.

Chaplain Ignatius Fealy will be Santa Claus for the children of the artillery garrison at 3 o'clock, December 24, at the Cavalry-Artillery hall. The cavalry children will have their tree at the cavalry moving picture hall at Castner at 3:30. Mrs. William Forsyth and Chaplain Lenihan are planning an enjoyable program.

The officers of the 1st Field Artillery were ordered to assemble this morning at 10:45 to take the three mile obstacle ride.

TWO RIDE FOR LIFE ON BURNING EXPRESS CAR

CEDAR RAPIDS, Iowa.—Clinging to the iron steps of a burning express car on a train, Express Messenger C. H. Bronzon and his helper, F. W. Howe, both of Chicago, rode seven miles. An explosion of moving picture films in the car had severed all communication with the engineer and the speed of the train made it suicidal to jump. Both were severely burned. The damage was estimated between $50,000 and $75,000.

MANY ARE THE CHRISTMAS GIFTS SPREAD BEFORE PUBLIC THIS YEAR

"Palisades of Prosperity" Page Scene in This Issue Gives Ideas for Shoppers

The Christmas shopping is on with a bang. People are taking the "Shop Early" slogan seriously, and as a consequence are relieving their minds and at the same time getting the pick of the wonderful displays of Christmas goods in the many stores in this city.

Among the shops that report business brisk are the following:

Yee Chan & Company, at Bethel and King streets, has transported a large part of the Orient to the islands, and has it on display at the emporium. Christmas goods are strong features here.

The Cherry, on Fort street opposite Pauahi street, has a large stock of Oriental goods that make most suitable gifts for the holidays. They report a brisk trade.

The City Hardware Company, at King and Nuuanu streets, has a stock of holiday goods that is making a strong bid for the attention of the public and getting it. The firm is making very noticeable reductions on many of its goods.

Miyake, up on Fort street just beyond Beretania street, has as complete a stock of Oriental goods for the inspection of the public as can be found in the city, and his prices are drawing gift-buyers his way. A visit to his store is a delight.

The Palace of Sweets, at Maunakea and King streets, is just what its name implies. This firm is "strictly in it" on ice cream and other delicacies for the big dinner on Christmas day, and will have a dinner for the public that cannot be beaten in the city.

C. S. Wo & Bro., 39 North King street, are dealers in the general hardware line, and have a store full of goods that should appeal to many as suitable gifts for the holiday. This stock of utensils for the kitchen should make glad the heart of any housewife.

The Federal Loan Office, on King street this side of the market, is making an offer of a genuine guaranteed diamond in a solid gold setting at a price that will give you back change from a five-dollar gold piece. What suits milder better than a diamond for a gift on Christmas?

Kam's Variety Store on King street has a run of custom that keeps all his clerks on the jump. The stock he carries fully warrants this run of holiday trade.

The American Cafe, on King street near Alakea street, has made wonderful preparations to feed the hungry on Christmas Day. A great feast there is being arranged, and after you have sampled all the good things that will be set before you, there will still be change coming from a dollar.

C. Hock Chow, corner King and Nuuanu streets, carries a stock that is very timely (clocks), also watches and all the other nice things that are usually found in a first class jewelry store.

The East Indian Store on Fort street opposite the Catholic mission, has a stock of embroideries that will make the heart of any woman give a few extra beats when she looks thereon. Fine is the work and moderate the price.

Sang Yuen Kee, on Nuuanu street between King and Hotel, has a reduction sale on for the holiday trade, and he is getting it. He is making a specialty of Canton ware for gifts.

U. Taira has a store on Pauahi street that is full to the door with toys, and he reports that he is not complaining about the trade he is handling. The children can show you where he is.

Kwong Sing Loy Co. on King street between Bethel and Nuuanu, has a sure enough up-to-date Christmas stock that is attracting the eye of the holiday buyer. They invite inspection of the big stock.

The big bankrupt shoe sale that is going on now on King street near Nuuanu is making it easy for some to pick up bargains in that line.

J. C. Axtell is ready to fence in the earth or even a small lot with the cyclone iron and wire fencing for which he is the agent. Lawn furniture is a specialty he is dealing in.

The Honolulu Cyclery, in its new quarters in the Kapiolani building on Alakea street, has a stock of juvenile autos, Irish mails and wagons for the youngsters. Don't overlook this chance to make the "kid" happy.

The Taisho Vulcanizing Company on Merchant street, around the corner from Alakea st., can keep your auto tires in the best of shape. Don't throw away that old tire. Take it to them and it will be repaired.

On the special "Palisades of Prosperity" page in this issue, you will see that Tom Sharp is up in the air as usual with signs that get the business for those who use them.

The Everready Auto Repair Shop at Richards and Queen streets has an expert on adjustments of auto ignition. Take your car there if she is not sparking well.

The New York City board of aldermen cut out increases in salaries amounting to $30,400 allowed by the board of estimate in the 1916 budget.

KIDDIES IN SALVATION ARMY HOME WILL HAVE BIG XMAS CELEBRATION

The children in the Salvation Army home in Manoa valley will celebrate Christmas with a festival to be held at the home at 7:30 o'clock next Monday evening. The Hawaiian band will play. The following program has been arranged:

Doxology, led by the Band; prayer, Dr. Wadman; song, "Christmas Bells;" opening speech, Pollyanna; recitation, "In His Name," Myrtle Brown; Indian club swinging, Mr. Frank Atherton; doll drill, Little Tots; recitation, "When Santa Claus Comes to Hawaii," Violet Rewcastle; song, "Santa Claus," Twelve Girls; Christmas dolls, Seven Children; dumb-bell drill, Sixteen Girls; Christmas conundrum, Eight Children; recitation, "Three Wise Men," Violet Rewcastle; trio, Three Young Ladies; taper march and drill, Twelve Girls; song, "Welcome to Santa Claus;" closing selection, led by the band.

KOREAN GIRL, MOTHER AT 13, FREED FROM MAN WHO BOUGHT HER

Circuit Judge Whitney has issued an order annulling the marriage of Lee Chun Choon, a Korean girl, 13 years old, and Kim Choon Hyeon. Sued for the annulment of the marriage was filed in circuit court by Lee Pyung Choon, father and "next best friend" of the girl. According to the testimony, the girl was sold by her parents to Kim when she was very young. When she found she was to become a mother she demanded that the Christian marriage ceremony be performed. This was done, but yesterday the young mother went into court and asked that the matrimonial bonds be severed.

A woman's heart beats faster than a man's.

"Santa Claus;" closing selection, led by the band.
